WRIT PETITION No.26387 OF 2007

ORDER:

This writ petition is filed for a writ of mandamus to declare tender notification, dated 27.09.2007 issued by the respondent as contrary to proceedings, dated 19.02.2007.

At the hearing, Shri M.Brahma Reddy, learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that under proceedings, dated 19.02.2007, the petitioner was entrusted with different nature of works including erection of bus shelters on Raj Bhavan Road and that by the impugned notification, the respondent is seeking to award contracts of building about 600 International Quality Bus Shelters under Public Private Partnership Mode and they include the bus shelters on Raj Bhavan Road, in respect of which the petitioner is awarded with the contract work.

From a perusal of Ex.P.1, dated 27.09.2007 which is under challenge in this writ petition, specific locations where bus shelters were proposed to establish have not been indicated nor the petitioner raised any averment in the affidavit filed in support of the writ petition that the respondent is proposing to locate new bus shelters on Raj Bhavan Road through other agencies.

Smt. Kalpana Ekbote, learned Standing Counsel for Greater Hyderabad Municipal Corporation submitted that the impugned proposal does not include any proposal to erect bus shelters on Raj Bhavan Road. As the respondent does not propose to erect bus shelters on Raj Bhavan Road, the petitioner's rights are in no way affected.

In view of the statement made by the learned Standing Counsel as recorded hereinabove, the writ petition is closed as infructuous.
